ABSTRACT

Payment system for software program use.

The system is made up of a software interface (IL), a payment module (W), and a payment server (SP) linked with the software editor (E). The software use offer is the subject of a message (2^1), a payment request (2), and a payment settlement (3) (4).

Application for controlling software program use.

Fig. 1